- 1.2 If you use any of our free resources (for example podcasts, workbooks, online classes, online exercises or any other resources we may offer free of charge from time to time) you also agree to be legally bound by this contract as appropriate, excluding the clauses relating to payment and consumer rights legislation.

1.3 When buying any services or using any resources you also agree to be legally bound by:

1.3.1 our website terms of use and privacy policy;

1.3.2 extra terms which may add to, or replace, some of this contract, for example any specific written contract between us;

1.3.3 specific terms which apply to our services, for example programme or service descriptions which may be set out on the webpage for that programme or in email correspondence between us. If you want to see these specific terms, please visit the relevant webpage for the programme or look at the services description I have sent you in an email or request it from us.

All these documents form part of this contract as though set out in full here.

2. Information we give you

2.1 Certain sections of this contract only apply to you and ourselves if you are a 'consumer', that is if you are an individual acting for purposes which are wholly or mainly outside your business or profession. By law, the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013 say that we must give you certain key information before a legally binding contract of sale between you and us is made (see the summary box below). We shall give you this information in a clear and understandable way either in this contract or the relevant programme or service description we agree between us.

I shall give you information on:

- the main characteristics of the services you are buying
- who we are, where we are based and how you can contact us
- the price of the services
- the arrangements for payment, carrying out the services and the time by which I shall carry out the services
- how to exercise your right to cancel the contract in the cooling off period if you are a consumer
- our complaint handling policy

3. Ordering services from us

3.1 Below, we set out how a legally binding contract to buy services between you and us is made:

3.2 Placing your order via our Mindbody booking software

You place an order either on the site by clicking on the relevant payment link or we shall send you the link by email. Please read and check your order carefully before submitting it.

3.2.1 When you place your order at the end of the online checkout process by clicking on the payment link on our site, we shall acknowledge it by email. This acknowledgement does not, however, mean that your order has been accepted.

3.2.2 Any quotation given by us before you place an order for services is not a legally binding offer by us to supply such services. Any prices set out in a quotation remain valid for 14 days.

3.2.3 When you decide to place an order for services with us, this is when you make a legal offer to buy such services from us

3.2.4 We may contact you to say that we do not accept your order, for example if we do not think our services are right for you or there has been a mistake in the pricing or description of the services, or our circumstances have changed since we gave you the quotation for the services.

3.2.5 We shall only accept your order when we confirm this to you by sending you a confirmation email or start to provide the services, whichever happens earlier. At this point:

Examples of events which might be beyond our reasonable control include illness, IT issues and problems with internet connectivity or if you change the services you require from us, and we have to do extra preparation.

5. Your responsibilities

5.1 You will pay the price for the services in accordance with the programme or services description.

5.2 It is very important that we have a full understanding of your state of health. You will provide us with such information and assistance (and ensure that any information is complete and accurate) as we reasonably need to provide the services.

5.3 Whilst every care will be taken to ensure your safety it is impossible to predict the body’s exact response to exercise. Therefore, it is important that you provide the correct information on your health form or at your individual consultation to minimise any risk. It is essential that you make the instructor aware of any changes to your medication or health and always work at your own level during the classes and sessions.

5.4 If you are currently receiving treatment from a doctor, consultant or other healthcare professional, by entering into this agreement you confirm that you have consulted with this person regarding the advisability of starting Pilates and that this person is aware of and supports your decision to proceed with the Pilates programme described in the relevant programme or services description.

We advise that you book a review session every 6 months with one of our Physiotherapist to monitor and discuss your progress. This is at your discretion and whilst strongly advisable, we will leave it up to you to book, unless we feel that it is necessary in order for you to continue with classes, you are experiencing problems during the classes, or we feel that classes are no longer a suitable option for you, and you wish to continue Pilates with us. Please be aware due to Covid restrictions this may need to be a virtual appointment.

5.8 Mindfulness does not treat mental disorders and is not a substitute for counselling, mental health care or medical treatment of any kind. By entering into this agreement, you confirm that you will not use it in place of any form of counselling, therapy or medical treatment.

6. Charges and payment

6.2 Individual Pilates and Physiotherapy Sessions

6.2.1 We require a payment in full to secure all sessions at the time of booking. Prices of sessions can be found in our services description. If you need to re-arrange this session, we are happy to transfer this payment, where possible, to an alternative appointment within a 2-month period as long as the original session was cancelled in line with our cancellation policy laid out in this contract. After this time any fee paid will expire and will no longer be able to be used.

6.2.2 The fees are non-refundable except for:

6.2.2.1 if you are a consumer, your right to a 'cooling off' period as described below;

6.2.2.3 In all other circumstances we are not able to refund to you any of the payments you have made, even where you do not complete your sessions.

6.3 Block of 6 Individual Pilates or Physiotherapy Sessions

6.3.1 We require payment in full for all 6 appointments at the time of booking in order to offer you the discounted rate. All sessions must be pre-booked and are valid for a 3-month period from the time of purchase.

6.3.4 where we cancel a session or programme other than under 12.3 below, you are entitled to a partial refund for sessions which you have paid for in advance and which you have not received.

6.3.5 In all other circumstances we are not able to refund to you any of the payments you have made, even where you do not complete your sessions with us, as payment is for the programme as a whole, not individual sessions. This is a reflection of the amount of preparation we need to put into the programme to make it most effective for you and the amount of time we shall dedicate and set aside for preparing for and attending our sessions together. This policy also helps you with your own accountability and commitment to improving your life through our Pilates programme.

6.4 Block Booked Classes

6.4.1 We require payment in full, for all classes in a particular block at the time of booking, in order to secure your place in the class. Please note all sessions of the corresponding block of classes must be paid for, even if you know you will miss a session. No refunds can be offered for missed sessions

6.4.2 All class payments are due at the time of booking to guarantee your place in your chosen class. If payment is made after this date, we cannot guarantee your place. Where this is the case, we reserve the right to cancel your booking.

6.4.3 If you no longer want to continue with your block booking you can cancel your booking in line with our cancellation policy set out in section 4.4.3 and 4.4.4.

6.4.4 The fees are non-refundable except for:

6.4.4.3 In all other circumstances we are not able to refund to you any of the payments you have made, even where you do not complete your sessions with us, as payment is for the programme as a whole, not individual sessions. This is a reflection of the fact we have reserved this place for you in our classes for the whole block and aren't able to offer the place to anyone else. This policy also helps you with your own accountability and commitment to improving your life through our Pilates programme.

6.5 Pay as you Go Classes (When Available)

6.5.1 We may from time to time offer a limited number of pay as you go spaces in our classes. We require payment in full for all pay as you go classes at the time of booking in order to secure your place in the class.

6.5.2 If you are unable to attend a pay as you go class and cancel in line with our cancellation policy laid out in section 4.5, we would be happy to transfer this payment to a suitable alternative class, subject to there being availability and within a 30-day period. After this time the class will expire.

6.5.3 The fees are non-refundable except for:

6.5.3.1 if you are a consumer, your right to a 'cooling off' period as described below; and

6.5.3.2 where we cancel a session or programme other than under 12.3 below, you are entitled to a partial refund for sessions which you have paid for in advance and which you have not received.

In the event that a chargeback is placed on a purchase, or we receive a chargeback threat during or after your purchase, or after the end of the cooling off period if you are a consumer, I reserve the right to report the incident to credit reporting agencies or to any other entity for inclusion in any chargeback database or for listing as non-payment on your account which could have a negative impact on your credit rating.

6.7 Payment for our services can be made by card using the payment button on our website or on our Mindbody booking site.

This is subject to change and is correct effective 14.06.2021

6.8 If any of your payments are not paid on the due date, we reserve the right to charge interest on any balance outstanding at the rate of 4 percentage points a year above HSBC Bank plc's base rate.

7. Cooling off period for consumers

7.1 If you are a consumer, you have the right to cancel this contract within 14 days without giving any reason. You are a consumer if you are an individual acting for purposes which are wholly or mainly outside your business.

7.2 The cancellation period will expire 14 days after the commencement of the contract.

7.3 However, if you confirm to us, you wish us to start to provide the services during the 14-day cancellation period then you lose your right to cancel. At this point our refund policy set out in clause 6.2, 6.3, 6.4 and 6.5 for the corresponding services, will apply.
